- Section 10162 of the Business and Professions Code

Every licensed real estate broker shall have and maintain a definite place of business in the State of California which shall serve as his office for the transaction of business. This office shall be the place where his license is displayed and where personal consultations with clients are held.

No real estate license authorizes the licensee to do business except from the location stipulated in the real estate license issued or as altered pursuant to Section 10161.8.”

Broker Statement

I am a California licensed real estate broker residing outside of the State of California. I am aware of and have read Section 10162 of the California Business and Professions Code. I hereby certify that prior to conducting business in California that requires a real estate license, I will furnish the Department of Real Estate with my California business address.
